AN INTERESTING COMMUNICA-

TION.

Brenham, Texas, September 12, 1914.

Mr. W. M. Webb, General Agent,

The National Mercantile Co., Ltd.,

Dallas, Texas.

Dear Sirs:—

I have this day received check for $250 for the $75 which I paid to The National Mercantile Company, the same being a check, not profit of $150 on my contract of $1,000.

On February 22nd, 1914, I made application for this loan and home-purchasing contract in the sum of $1,000.00, which I made an initial payment of $15. On the 16th day of each succeeding month thereafter, I paid monthly installment of $10 for a period of six months, when I was notified that my contract had matured for a loan, I was offered my loan of $1,000.00, they giving me eleven to twelve years in which to pay off the loan and charging only 2% interest on my yearly balances.

I preferred to cash in my contract and have this day received check as stated
